

CHAPTER XI

STREETS.

I. Sky-signs.

1. (1) For the purposes of section 244 the expression “sky-sign” means any word, letter, model, sign, device or representation in the nature of an advertisement, announcement or direction, supported on or attached to any post, pole, standard frame-work or other support, wholly or in part upon or over any land, building, or structure which, or any part of which sky-sign, shall be visible against the sky from some point in any street and includes all and every part of any such post, pole, standard frame-work or other support. It shall also include any balloon, parachute, or other similar device employed wholly or in part for the purposes of any advertisement, announcement or direction upon or over any land, building or structure or upon or over any street.

Interpretation of sky-sign.

(2) A sky-sign shall not include—

(a) any flagstaff, pole, vane or weathercock, unless adapted or used wholly or in part for the purpose of any advertisement, announcement or direction ;

(b) any sign, or any board, frame or other contrivance securely fixed to or on the top of the wall or parapet of any building, or on the cornice or blocking course of any wall, or to be the ridge of a roof:

Provided that such board, frame or other contrivance be of one continuous face and not open work, and do not extend in height more than three feet above any part of the wall, or parapet or ridge to, against, or on which it is fixed or supported;

(c) any word, letter, model, sign, device, or representation as aforesaid, relating exclusively to the business of a railway administration, and placed wholly upon or over any railway, railway station, yard, platform or station approach belonging to a railway administration and so placed that it can not fall into any street or public place;

(d) any notice of land or buildings to be sold, or let, placed upon such land or buildings.

II. Naming or Numbering of Streets and Numbering of¹[Premises].

2. (1) The Commissioner may, from time to time—

(a) with the sanction of the Corporation, determine the name or number by which any street or any public place vested in the Corporation shall be known;

Naming or numbering of streets, and numbering of ¹[premises].

(b) cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of any house at or near each end, corner or entrance to such street and at intervals along such street or on some convenient part of such street, the name or number of such street as so determined;

(c) cause to be put up or painted suitable signs or boards indicating the name of any public place vested in the Corporation;

(d) determine the number or sub-number by which any premises on part of such premises shall be known;

²[(e) by written notice require the owner of any premises or part thereof either to put up by means of a metal plate a number or sub-number on such premises or part thereof in such position and manner as may be specified in such notice, or to signify in writing his desire that such work shall be executed under the orders of the Commissioner;]

Explanation.—The provisions of this sub-rule shall apply to the renewal of the name or number of any street or public place or the number or sub-number of any premises, or part thereof, or the obliteration or defacement of such name or number as it applies to the putting up or painting of such name or number for the first time.

1. This word was substituted for the word “ houses” by Bom. 22 of 1956, s. 8(2) (e).

2. This paragraph was substituted for the original, ibid., s. 8(2) (a).
