

¹[State] Government may modify or repeal by-laws.

464. (1) If it shall at any time appear to the ¹[State] Government that any by-law should be modified or repealed either wholly or in part, it shall cause its reasons for such opinion to be communicated to the Corporation and prescribe a reasonable period within which the Corporation may make any representation with regard thereto which it shall think fit.

(2) After receipt and consideration of any such representation or, if in the meantime no such representation is received, after the expiry of the prescribed period, the ¹[State] Government may at any time by notification in the Official Gazette, modify or repeal such by-law either wholly or in part.

(3) The modification or repeal of a by-law under sub-section (2) shall take effect from such date as the ¹[State] Government shall in the said notification direct or, if no such date is specified, from the date of the publication of the said notification in the Official Gazette, except as to anything done or suffered or omitted to be done before such date.

(4) The said notification shall also be published in the local newspapers.

Regulations.

465. (1) The Standing Committee shall from time to time frame regulations not inconsistent with this Act and the rules but in consonance with any resolution that may be passed by the Corporation—

(a) prescribing the qualifications required for appointments to posts in municipal service other than those specified in sub-clause (a) of clause (3) of section 457;

(b) fixing the amount and the nature of the security to be furnished by any municipal officer or servant from whom it may be deemed expedient to require security;

(c) regulating the grant of leave to municipal officers and servants;

(d) authorizing the payment of allowances to the said officers and servants, or to certain of them, whilst absent on leave;

(e) determining the remuneration to be paid to the persons appointed to act for any of the said officers or servants during their absence on leave;

(f) authorising the payment of travelling or conveyance allowance to the said officers and servants;

(g) regulating the period of service of all the said officers and servants;

(h) determining the conditions under which the said officers and servants, or any of them, shall on retirement or discharge receive pensions, gratuities or compassionate allowances, and under which the surviving spouse or children and, in the absence of the surviving spouse or children, the parents, brothers and sisters, if any, dependent on any of the said officers and servants, shall after their death, receive compassionate allowances and the amounts of such pensions, gratuities or compassionate allowances;

(i) prescribing the procedure to be followed in removing from service or dismissing or the otherwise punishing any municipal officer or servant other than an officer who is appointed under section 40 or 45 or who is appointed to act in the place of such officer;

(j) authorising the payment of contributions, at certain prescribed rates and subject to certain prescribed conditions, to any pension or provident fund which may, with the approval of the Standing Committee, be established by the said officers and servants or to such provident fund, if any, as may be established by the Corporation for the benefit of the said officers and servants;

(k) prescribing the conditions under which and, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 50, the authorities by whom the said officers and
